United States Patent Office

Des. 186,119
Patented Sept. 15, 1959

186,119

PUPPET DOLL OR SIMILAR ARTICLE

James M. Henson, Hyattsville, Md., and Jane A. Nebel, Washington, D.C., assignors to John H. Wilkins Company, Washington, D.C., a corporation of Delaware

Application October 17, 1958, Serial No. 53,012

Term of patent 14 years

(Cl. D34—4)

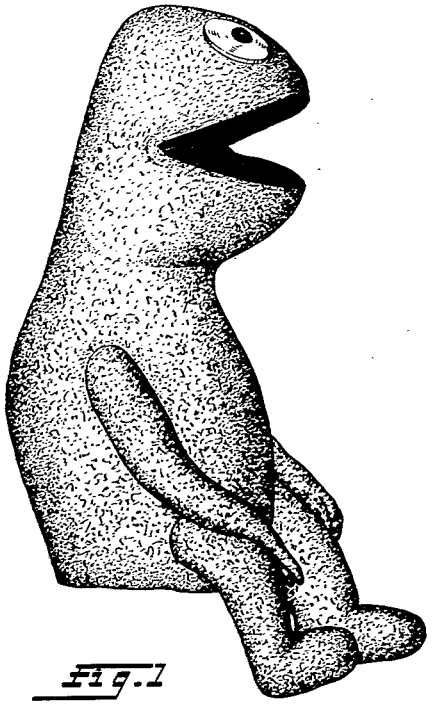

Fig. 1

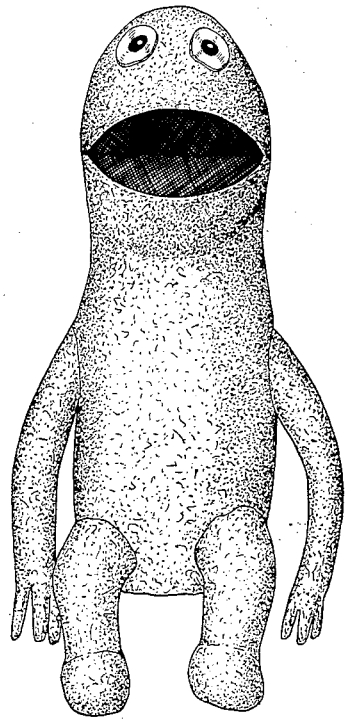

Fig. 2

Figure 1 is a side elevational view of a puppet doll or similar article showing my new design (the side elevation being the same from either side).

Figure 2 is a front elevational view of the puppet doll or similar article shown in Figure 1. (However, the arms and hands are in slightly different position in this figure for greater clarity.)

We claim:

The ornamental design for a puppet doll or similar article, substantially as shown and described.

References Cited in the file of this patent

UNITED STATES PATENTS

D. 163,733	Alexander	June 26, 1951
D. 163,734	Alexander	June 26, 1951
D. 167,289	Tillstrom	July 15, 1952